

The Role of Forest Operations in the UN Decade on Ecosystem Restoration

September 28, 2021, | 4 PM Guatemala; 5 pm CDMX; 6 PM Washington DC; 7 pm Santiago, Sao Paulo | Zoom

AGENDA Washington DC Time

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| 6:00 PM | Welcome Address
Rene Zamora Cristales, Coordinator Unit 3.09 Forest Operation for Landscape Restoration |
| 6:03 AM | From restoration to operations: A systemic view
What are the main operational challenges from global restoration commitments?
Maria Inés Miranda, FairConnections Wise Women (Chile)

How we can design innovative financial instruments to support restoration operations?
Maggie Gonzalez, World Resources Institute (USA, Mexico)

What role does proper road planning play in restoration and preservation of landscapes and the environment?
Patricia Ramirez, Softree (Canada, Guatemala) |
| 6:15 PM | What does the global restoration commitments mean for the forest value chain?
Maria Inés Miranda, FairConnections Wise Women (Chile) |
| 6:25 PM | What financial instruments are available to support restoration operations and how to make then effective to restore key ecosystem services
Maggie Gonzalez, World Resources Institute (USA, Mexico) |
| 6:35 PM | How does technology for road planning can help forest manager to minimize impacts of forest operations
Patricia Ramirez, Softree (Canada, Guatemala) |
| 6:45 PM | Questions and Synthesis of challenges and why this is different
Rene Zamora Cristales, IUFRO Div 3.09 Coordinator |